Stay at home, now

That little girl was born on the ghetto side of town

She knows every trick in the book and she certainly gets around

She's been with many men since she was only ten

She never stay at home, she 's always on the town

Your mamma is wondering where you are

What do you see at night when you're under the stars

Stay at home

Sister stay at home

Don't let your mamma down

Don't be a run around

Stay at home

Sister stay at home

Don't let your mother down

Don't be a run around

Stay at home, now

That little girl was born on the ghetto side of town

She knows every trick in the book and she certainly

She's been with many men since she was only ten

She never stay at home, she's always on the town

Your mamma is wondering where you are

What do you see at night when you're under the stars

Baby keep on running and you won't get far

You like to travel with all those movie stars

You like a hangin' in the big long shiny cars

Sister stay at home

Don't let your mamma down, no no no no
