Lives and loves, don't tell me about it

To respond to something permanent, you've got to be strong

Mmm... lives and loves

Only you know in your heart how the pain felt

How the love made you melt, me and you love

We have a way that seems to brighten up the day

We have our problems

Is the whole world asking is it worth it?

All the lovers in the world should they go on?

After all, they say you only live once

Lives and loves, only you know in your heart

How the pain felt, how the love made you melt

Me and you love, we have a way

That seems to brighten up the day

We have our problems

Is the whole world asking is it worth it?

All the lovers in the world, should they go on?

On and on and on

Oohhh, lives and loves, don't tell me about it

Someone always gets hurt in it, you've got to be strong

Hey...lives and loves

Only we know in our hearts how the pain felt

Oh your love made me melt, me and you love

We had a way that seemed to brighten up the day

We had our problems

Is the whole world asking is it worth it?

All the lovers in the world, should they go on?

After all, they say you only live once
