"The Spirit Of Life"

Are you the best? Or the equal of every man on this earth?

I introspect. I can have anything that I could want

Yet I need for nothing.....Oh nothing

'Cos the spirit of life is within you

Breathing with ease through the whole of you

And deeper inside is within you, searching until we find a way

To jump out now, jumping around now

Cause sooner or later we'll be gone

What will be left is the benefit of all we've learnt before,

And what's the test? It's the dignity of every man.

You will need for nothing, oh nothing

You will need for nothing, oh nothing
