Maybe I'm just dreaming, I start before I sleep Stockpile of scenes, 5 miles high, and deep as they are surely wide
Like a charge of some electric buzz, it comes crashing down inside

[Chorus:]

Will I... daydream tomorrow? Stay awake with me Will I... be there tomorrow? Stay awake with me

I've got my goals before me, and at night they seem to fade
And you might think it's crazy
When I say I'd like to make a difference in this band Those doubts can only hurt now, with my head down in the sand

[Chorus]

It might be 4 A.M. in Texas, but I'm still dreamin' wide awake
It's 4 A.M. in Texas, this thinking's growing in my head It's 4 A.M. in Texas, and I'm on the phone and you're not home
It's 4 A.M. in Texas, Texas!
