"Big Fall"

You're really down
You've hit the skids
You never seem to get ahead
You blame us all, for your big fall
You're pointing fingers everywhere

But you don't care, you never cared
You could hardly give a fuck, you drain the life
You always try, to take away the good things..

Before you take it all
I gotta keep some for myself

Before you take it all
I gotta keep some for myself

You've always been
So selfish and you never care who it affects
Impossible, oblivious, you're so obnoxious
So direct, you're never scared
You always get exactly you need
Out of control, you've got no soul
It's really great that fuels you...

Before you take it all
I gotta keep some for myself

Before you take it all
I gotta keep some for myself
