Even if I wanted to believe in mankind
Even if I wanted to trust the system going down
And consider order part
Real change is of the heart
Even if I wanted to trust rules of order
Even if I wanted to hold the guild up to the truth
They take the foot of the poor and youth
The old are of the weak
And the chemicals they leak
Now I shouldn't even speak
Even if I wanted to work my whole life
Even if I wanted to the systems falling apart
Our land is full of hunger for the money
And the manners parallel to the cover from the public
But I keep on coming up
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to believe in mankind
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to trust the system going down
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to
Even if I wanted to
