Whoa yeah

She was down and out, had just enough
Of the things to keep a young girl alive
It was gettin' rough, but she soon got tough
To the fact of makin' sure she survived

She was out of luck, she didn't have a buck
So I laid it to her straight on the line
Get up for me baby
Come on we're gonna have a good time
My my baby, come on we're gonna have a good time

Over here
Sooner or later, girl, I will persuade ya
Just to gimme gimme gimme what you got
Well I don't have a lover, that would blow my cover
Come on and give some of your rock 'n' roll love

I was feelin' great, I didn't hesitate
So I looked the girl right in the eye
Baby baby baby, come on we're gonna have a good time

So I got right down to it
Sweet sixteen never looked so good before
You know I always knew it
But this time I knew better than before, oh dig it

You know I didn't say much, but I guess I said enough
Cause the two of us were doin' really good
When the sun came a risin', I was realizin'
That I had to have her with me if I could

I was feelin' great, I didn't hesitate
So I looked the girl right in the eye
Baby baby baby, come on we're gonna have a good
time
So I got right down to it
Sweet sixteen never looked so good before

You know I always knew it
But this time I knew better than before
You know, I almost blew it
But she held me back away from the door
And we got right down to it, ooh, we did
