Weeping widow, don't you cry

Dressed in black, I don't know why

All the time that you've been waiting

You should feel like celebrating

He'll make you free as a bird in the sky

Free as a bird in the sky

Look out stranger, here comes danger

Don't let it look you in the eye, boy

You better take care, you know you've got to beware

Don't let it look you in the eye, boy, weeping widow

Weeping widow, spend your leisure

In you castle full of pleasure

When his spirit comes to haunt you

In your chamber, he will taunt you

He'll make you free as a bird in the sky

Free as a bird in the sky

Look out stranger, here comes danger

Don't let it look you in the eye, boy

You better take care, you know you've got to beware

Don't let it look you in the eye, boy, weeping widow

Weeping widow, don't you cry

Dressed in black, I don't know why

All the time that you've been waiting

You should feel like celebrating

Weeping widow, you gotta run

Weeping widow, you better see what's in store

Weeping widow, you better run
