Where is my brother, where's my friend?
Who once was strong and now so thin
Have you lost so much you're lost within?
Forgot who you are blinded by sin?

Don't tell me that you're the same boy who once loved
me
Can I ask why you would leave all this for nothing x2

Don't you tell me that
Don't you tell me that
Don't you tell me that
All this for nothing x2

Could you say that you're happy now
Underneath your own self-made cloud
Will you look back at it one day
And admit that you made mistakes?
Mistakes

Don't tell me that you're the same boy who once

Don't tell me that you're the same boy who once loved
me
Can I ask why you would leave all this for nothing x2

Don't you tell me that
Don't you tell me that
Don't you tell me that
All this for nothing x2

Don't tell me that you're the same boy who once loved
me
Can I ask why you would leave all this for nothing x2

Don't tell me that, yeah yeah yeah x3
Don't tell me that
That you would leave all this
