Being with you was no much better than these memories
Of how we grew up and we followed a straight path
But then you fell apart
Only God knows what was in your heart
You chose a seperate way to go

Little did I fell that pain inside you
Little did I know that you were dying
Lttle did I want to pretend it wasn't there
And little did you know that I was with you
Little did you care that you were numb
And little did you know that someone did love you
I thought you knew, I thought you knew

It breaks my heart to know that I could have prevented this
I ignored everything until it was too late
You were worth so much
Are you more precious now that you're gone?
This choice you made can't be undone

Little did I fell that pain inside you
Little did I know that you were dying
Lttle did I want to pretend it wasn't there
And little did you know that I was with you
Little did you care that you were numb
And little did you know that someone did love you
I thought you knew, I thought you knew
I thought you knew, I thought you knew

You must have been so scared
So sonfused, unaware
Beloved, my angel
Beautiful, where are you
Did you know, He loves you
Sacrificed His son for you
Please come back, I miss you
I need you, I thought you knew x2

I thought you knew, I thought you knew

I thought you knew
