Well there used to be a time when the roses and your wine were the kind of offer I could not refuse.
You think love's a swinging door just a shelter from your storm Baby I can't cry one more tear for you

(chorus)

So you can come back when you want me as bad as you need me
come back when you mean what you're saying.
Come back when you know what you have
oh you better come back when it ain't rainin'

You say that I am all you need and your nothing's sound so sweet but they won't sweep me off my feet
not this time

Cause' my heart's been broke before and I've been caught in your downpour baby I can't take no more cloudy skies

(chorus)

So you can come back when you want me as bad as
you need me
come back when you mean what you're saying
Come back when you know what you have
oh you better come back baby when it ain't rainin'

When it ain't rainin' (2x)

(chorus)

Come back when you want me as bad as you need me
come back when you mean what you're saying
come back when you know what you have
oh you better come back, you better come back

(chorus)

come back when you mean what you're saying

Come back when you know what you have
oh you better come back baby when it rainin'

When it ain't rainin' (4x)
