Say sleepless night.
Caught in this fight.
The sky has dawned on me again.

Oh, Doctor, doctor.
Please medicate me.
As I fall to my knees.
Held In remorse.
Listen to this plea.

Take my hand.
Close your eyes.
Deep breath.
There lies a place.
A dream you've had of oceans and neverending life.
Say sleepless night.

Visions of flight reflect my eyes.
This chronic lapse won't rest tonight.
As I wake I take a step outside my window.
Second star to the right, This dust will guide my way tonight.

Take my hand.
Close your eyes.
Deep breath.
There lies a place.
A dream you've had of oceans and neverending life.
Say sleepless night.

Hold in my breath as I meet my fate.
"Is it just in my head?
Am I living or dead?"
Now close my eyes.

The perfect faith is to have wings.
