"The Break In Me"

Can't you see the break in me?
She opened fire.
It's empty.
I'll die alone tonight.
Alone, because you said you'd be the one for me.
Now this is truth.
It never meant anything.
Never again will true love speak.
Our time's run out.
You sacrificed immortal life.
Hand in hand.
The sun won't rise again.
You left me.
Heart out on the floor.
Passed out. Now everything goes black.
My last night. The sun won't rise again.
I spill my heart for you.
