I have come with humble reverence
Trusting in Your blood that cleanses.
I'm forgiven; I am truly free.
I have come with expectation
You will pour out revelation
And change me from glory to glory.

All I need is in Your house.
All I seek is in Your presence.

What an honour, what a privilege
You've invited me, You've invited me.
What an honour, what a privilege
You've invited me, You've invited me.
To come in Your presence
And behold Your beauty
To worship at Your feet.

I have come with humble reverence
Trusting in Your blood that cleanses.
I'm forgiven; I am truly free.
I have come with expectation
You will pour out revelation
And change me from glory to glory.

All I need is in Your house.
All I seek is in Your presence.
As I hear You call me now,
I receive Your invitation.

What an honour, what a privilege
You've invited me, You've invited me.
What an honour, what a privilege
You've invited me, You've invited me.
To come in Your presence
And behold Your beauty
To worship at Your feet.

I have come with humble reverence
Trusting in Your blood that cleanses.
I'm forgiven; I am truly free.

I have come with expectation
You will pour out revelation
And change me from glory to glory.

I have come anticipating
That You will not keep me waiting
You will fill me to overflowing.
I have come with holy passion
Just to be Your will in action
Lord use me, for I am Yours only.

All I need is in Your house.
All I seek is in Your presence.
As I hear You call me now,
I receive Your invitation.

What an honour, what a privilege
You've invited me, You've invited me.
