[Speaking] Ladies and gentlemen. We have an unprecedented event here tonight Reef The Lost Cauze has got Brother Ali live from Minnesota We about to tear this joint down y'all! Ha ha! [Verse One: Reef The Lost Cauze] Since the days of Tonka I had been a monster Me and Ali cold as Lake Minnetonka Don't nobody rep Philly harder Record labels wanna holler Man make me a bigger offer Or step to the rear Cause you can't by freedom or respect from your peers See that check hasn't cleared You can't withdraw that That ain't hip hop homie What do you call that? You programmed all wrong, uninstall that Mad people doubted me Come on, crawl back Eat humble pie as sure as the sun will rise If hip hop is dead then I'm motherfuckin' mummified With the slow walk, arms outstretched This is my house homie, you're all my guests I'm remodeling, rippin' up the floor Speak on mine, give a fuck if you kick us off the tour like blaow! How you feel about it [X4] [Chorus: X2] We been nice since we was on a big wheel This is Cauze and Ali homie, this a big deal We been in this game for years and we still ill So what you rhyme homie? Big deal How you feel about it [X4] [Verse Two: Brother Ali] I've been nice since I was on a big wheel Buying out Mickey D's Make it rain kid's meals Back seat of the station wagon rappin' at the top of my lungs and my mom yelling "Sit still!" I'm quick with it and sick with it I find a hole in the flow and stick my dick in it Talk ten pounds of shit a minute Pour piss out my boots and I'm back to my business It's been scripted and written Signed the Most High in his infinite wisdom For me to be this prophetic prolific Uplifted and all synonyms of gifted How could you be expected to resist it They insist upon giving my pinkie ring kisses Listen kids this is just simply a symptom of the condition I live with For instance I receive love letters from my listeners with murder convictions So inspired by my in-scriptures That they can envision their way out of prision Been nice since I been on a big wheel Screamin' at the top of my lungs like I'm Vince Neil Linebacker style playing king of the hill Knock 'em down show 'em how a fat kid feel (ALI!)

How you feel about it [X4] [Chorus: X2]
