As far back as I recall, you've played a major part Inspired me to see my place in life, you gave me reason to create Everyday is brand new, there's something new introduced
And you've touched me in those places, that no one but you can reach

You take me to this high, I feel like I can fly
The melodies you send me
The music of my heart, the music of my mind
The music of my soul, the music in me

And here I am at this place, I've tried to get to all my life
Where I can give you all my love so much
Where many people we can touch
I won't disappoint you, show me the world I'll go with you
No limitations to our journey, please help me be all I can be

You take me to this high, I feel like I can fly
The melodies you send me
The music of my heart, the music of my mind
The music of my soul, the music in me

You take me to this high, I feel like I can fly
The melodies you send me
The music of my heart, the music of my mind
The music of my soul, the music in me

I've been in love with you, with you all my life Through everything it's been just you and I
You know my true thoughts, what is deep inside
You allow me to interpret them through you

You take me to this high, I feel like I can fly
The melodies you send me
The music of my heart, the music of my mind
The music of my soul, the music in me

You take me to this high, I feel like I can fly
The melodies you send me
The music of my heart, the music of my mind
The music of my soul, the music in me

You take me to this high, I feel like I can fly
The melodies you send me
The music of my heart, the music of my mind
The music of my soul, the music in me
