Last way to go I'll walk alone
Won't need your breast oh mother
No shelter left
Another soul will come to thee

I reached the top nothing undone
Your breath remains oh brother
Nothing to gain
Another soul will come to thee

Oh is this the way?
I have nothing else left but
Walk into your light
Into my "sungodown"

I think of the past and will not cry
I won't regret no hour
Sorry for that
Another soul will come to thee

The clouds aside the heaven's bright
You will receive oh father
My life today
Another soul will come to thee

Oh is this the way?
I have nothing else left but
Walk into your light
Into my "sungodown"

My way to go I'm not alone
Won't need your breast oh mother
Your shelter left
Another soul will come to thee

The clouds aside the heaven's wide
You will release oh father
Young soul today
And another soul will come to thee
