Your heart's been broken
Your memories gone
She took them as a token
And left with the sun

You realize now
Your life was a lie
You fell into the ground
Looking up to the sky

All you do is cry now
Nothing's really worth
Since she said goodbye now
And left you oh so hurt

Screaming at the stars
Watching passing cars
You see the birds flying by
And all you do is cry
(all you do is cry)
(all you do is cry)

All you do is cry now
Nothing's really worth
Since she said goodbye now
And left you oh so hurt

All you do is cry now
Nothing's really worth
Since she said goodbye now
And left you oh so hurt

All you do is cry now
(Cry now)
Nothing's really worth
Since she said goodbye now
(Goodbye now)
And left you oh so hurt
