What happened between you and me
What situation made us act this way

I'm afraid that this will last forever
Our love is vanished without a trace

We talked for hours on the phone
But I've never felt more alone
This could be the last time

I am sorry for being honest
I am sorry for being with you

I guess that we are just giving things up
Is our journey over, is this the end, yeah
Still we're talking on the phone
And still I'm feeling so alone
Yeah, this is the last time

I am sorry for being honest
I am sorry for being with you

Remember all our dreams
Can't we give it some more time
Think about the days when it felt
We were the only ones alive
I cannot stay here
I cannot be with you

I am sorry for being honest
I am sorry for being with you
I am sorry for being with you
I am sorry
