

Only Seven Left "The Moonlight Sky"

In the centre of attention, on the centre of the stage.
Smile the day away but you will never turn the page.
Should I ask you how you're feeling or pretend I didn't hear the silence in your words?
But your voice is loud and clear.
Sing me a song under the moonlight sky.
Give me a chance tonight.
You should know that I'm sick of feeling awkward.
Deflate my ego like an air bed and destroy my self esteem.
I'd come home with you but there's no "I" in team.
You don't know it is not your fault 'cause I will never learn.
No, I will never learn.
