

Vixen

"American Dream"

Visit "American Dream" on MotoLyrics.com

One revolution turning around
Grace under pressure but don't make a sound
Our house is divided but together we stand
The one constitution go hand to hand

Here's to you, red and yellow, black and white
Once the daylight turned to night
We're not as bold as we may seem
We're looking for the American dream
Yes, American dream

Some people hiding, they go underground
Sex is an issue in every dead town
Trading in secrets and dealing in lies
Living is easy when you close your eyes

Here's to you, red and yellow, black and white
Join the daylight, return to night
We're not as bold as we may seem
We're looking for the American dream

Here's to you, red and yellow, black and white
Join the daylight, return to night
We're not as bold as we may seem
We're looking for the American dream
Looking for the American dream, yeah

Looking for the American dream
The American dream
And we're not as bold as we may seem
American dream

We're looking for the American dream

Visit Vixen page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.