Fumblin' for a sign
Searchin' for ways to find
Answers that slip from me
Visibility, wish that I could see

Somewhere inside my head
Something that someone said
Whispers of mystery
My intuition speaks to me
Listen carefully

I hear a little voice
I hear a little voice

Huntin' for evidence
Matter of self defense
Looking for clues
And then it all becomes clear
I just need to hear

Asking your whereabouts
Figuring it all out why am I wondering
Why do I question myself?
Because there's no one else
(There's someone else)

I hear a little voice
I hear a little voice
Callin' to me, callin' out
Cryin' out my name

Tells me everything
I refuse to see
Love may be blind
But it hears so clearly

I hear a little voice
It always sounds the same
I hear a little voice
Callin' to me, callin' out
Cryin' out my name
