I was pretendin' it was easy alone
I built a fortress to keep out the unknown
Surrounded myself with walls of rejection
Trapped in the dungeon for my protection

Your smile came shinin' through
So pure I knew

Not a minute too soon, your love came through for me
You are the water in my desert
Not a minute too soon, your love got through to me
You rescued me just in the nick of time

Time after time I threw my heart away
My faith was fading fast day after day
I had enough of givin' in
I couldn't lay down my pride so love just pushed me aside

Your kisses washed away my thirst
Every touch felt like the first

Not a minute too soon, your love came through for me
You are the water in my desert
Not a minute too soon, your love got through to me
You rescued me just in the nick of time

In this angry world, I thought loneliness would shelter me
My broken spirit cried in vain, till you set me free

Your kisses washed away my thirst
Every touch feels just like the first

Not a minute too soon, your love came through for me
You are the water in my desert
Not a minute too soon, your love got through to me
You rescued me just in the nick of time

Not a minute too soon, your love came through for me
You are the water, yeah you are the water
Not a minute too soon, your love got through to me

You rescued me just in the nick of time

And not a minute too soon

You are the water in my desert

You know your love came through for me

Your love got through to me

I've rescued oh rock me, roll me

I wanna be the one
