

Refreshments, The "Down Together"

Visit "Down Together" on MotoLyrics.com

We can write our names here in the mud no one's around to see them.
We can hang our shoes here in a tree no one's around
to steal them.
I could give you a star, you could give me one too and that way we'd be even.
I could sing a song way out of tune and not care a bit about it.

We could both wear cowboy hats and pretend that we could speak Italian.
I could eat some gum and make my breath so minty
fresh to kiss you.
Your breath would smell like wine I like that a lot especially when I kiss you.
I could hit my funny bone real hard and you could call me sweetheart.

Whoever said there's nothing new under the sun.
Never thought much about individuals.
But he's dead anyway.

Let's go down together, down together,
Let's go down, together, down together, down
together,
let's go down, together, down together, down together,
Let's go down, together, down together, down
together,
yea let's go.

We could all wear ripped up clothes and pretend that we were Dead Hot Workshop.
I could drive a long, long way and not even have the gas to make it back.
We could chase our shadows around the lawn until we're both exhausted.
I could forget the words here one more time and hope that no one notices.

Whoever said there's nothing new out in the sun.
Never thought much about me.

Yea, well
What's good for you is good for me and
What's bad for you is bad for me.
And what's good for you is good for me and
What's bad for you is bad for me.

Well cars break down and people break down and other things break down too
so let's go...

down together, down together
let's go down, together, down together, down together,
let's go down, together, down together,
yea let's go.

We could find a speck of dust and scribble down our life story.

Visit Refreshments, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.