My neurons pulsate in a micro-web
See potential there as connections are bred
My peptides mingle in a hormone spray
Feel endorphins rush as foundations are laid
I can't imagine they don't know that they're winning
So much activity it keeps my head spinning
My proteins march on in a secret parade

I have no life outside of my mind
I have no life outside of my mind
I have no life outside of my mind

I have no life outside of my mind (all I need)
I have no life outside of my mind (is right here)

I have no life outside of my mind (in my head)
But it doesn't matter anyway
I wouldn't have a thing to say
If you asked me to come out and play

I have no life outside of my mind (AOL)
I have no life outside of my m
