Left a wife with two children.
They get by in their way

Only two dollars monthly

Feed three kids from pay.
Said to my mother I'm homesick

She said son
what'd ya say

This is your home - I know
I said but my mother
It makes me sick all the way.

It's a bluesiful day
It's a bluesiful day
It's a bluesiful day
Hallelujah
It's a bluesiful day.
Passed a woman who was happy.
He was tall he was thin.
Got his kicks from a bottle.
Never saw him again.
Babies born in the morning'
People dyin' at night

Guess I'm tired of livin'
But I'm frightened to die.

It's a bluesiful day...
