"Whisper In Time"

all those stories that my dad told me, they are just a whisper in time all those things that never came to be,
a whisper in time, a whisper in time things that I can't shake from my mind
moments that just flicker and die (memories that flicker and die) all those places I wanted to go,
they are just a whisper in time all those friends who now I do not know, they are just a whisper in time maps and roads that brought me here today,
they are just a whisper in time circumstances that were explained away,
they are just a whisper in time
...we are messengers of memory, just whispers in time
