(M. Spohn, R. Peinelt, A. Torkler)

(from the album "InFormation", 1995) everyone underneath the sun has got something to say but keeping it just in they make it through each and every day

they have got the fear inside to stand up and let it out but nothing will be changed at all if you don't dare to shout

the mighty ones suppress and terrify to stop on top if we stay quiet and harmless then we can't change it up they banish their opponents and throw them in the tower

they do just everything so that they don't lose any power

start to fight for your right see the world in a different light change up things make your choice listen closely when you hear the voice you'll be broken if you just look away and do not care but you'll have to have the courage to stand up and dare revolution against the old and rusty men of war blow the dark clouds of fear away and break in every door

chorus

in a world where on every day so many people die someone's got to stand up at least we all must try
