Quietly remind me nothing is real
Not the sea, not the sky, not concrete or steel
It's all just a dream, we dream wide awake
Trying to find our way back to grace

Quietly remind me it will all fade away
Disappear like the tears, like dark at daybreak
Everything that we chase is gone in a breath
Only love stays in the places we've left

Chorus:

And I wanna stay here forever
Wide awake, in your dreams and in your heart
Awake, promise me you remember
So that time can never tear us apart

If you're here beside me I believe what I feel
I can trust in each touch, my fate has been sealed
For all that we know we know nothing at all
Close your eyes and let go, it's safe now to fall

Chorus

Quietly remind me nothing is real
Not the sea, not the sky, not concrete or steel
