"MILES AWAY"

when i'm with you
perfection's not too far.
my world is one you're my sun,
my moon, my stars.
it's such a rush,
a thing i can't explain.
it means so much,
like snow you cannot stain.
and the time it never lasts,
and present becomes the past.
when you're miles and miles away,
you know that i miss you.
when you're miles and miles away.
when you're miles away...
to see your face
the one i can't replace.
your precious smile,
i can feel you through the miles.
to feel your touch,
oil runs through my veins.
a whispered hush,
like a fire that burns in rain.
and the time it has to end,
and there you go again.
miles and miles away,
it's not mundane every time i call your name.
when you're not here i call to ease the pain.
it's just my heart crying out for light.
'cause, i love you with all my might!!!
miles and miles away, you know that i miss you
