Well you're acting up
And I think you feel
Feel that you're oh something

And I hate doing something to just appeal
You knock it down
Pretend that you've seen nothing
You've seen nothing

Wait, the hands across your face,
Say more than words can say
You're catching on to something in my eye
You see I just can't wait
I just won't let you by
You seem surprised to even see me try

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of

Now we're holding back to think our way
Wait till we move forward

And I'm starting to dig my own damn grave
You grab the spade
Throw it across the border
Across the border

Wait, the hands across your face,
Say more than words can say
You're catching on to something in my eye
You see I just can't wait
I just won't let you by

You seem surprised to even see me try

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of

All that depth of me
I'm coming down
I'll take you with me
We'll travel all the
We can travel on this ground

And now I hear a preacher call us
Lead us down to pray
Hope that I too have a fate like that someday

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of

Well it's not that kind of love
It's an arrow through my heart
You're the one I'm dreaming of
Yes, you're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
You're the one I'm dreaming of
