there is no use to believe that things are going wrong you are complicating things more than they should be , how come you can't make it through through this you can't see cause you have lost your point of view and what i know right now is that i wanna spend my time with you but you seem lost and...

don't believe that things will be ok you've gotta change them now unless you wanna fall back down try your best
forget the past cause you don't need the rest just do it on your own

I need, something more than you can actually give me (u cant give me)
what i need, is way more smaller and simple , what your doing now is wasting all your fucking time forgive, friends are telling me that you're now on ur own (you're on ur own) forgive, let it go cause im the only thing that u've got left cause now your lost and...

you've gotta change them now

you gotta keep it in your mind that things won't be the same again you've got me now by your side just start all over now

just do it on your own
