Yeah! Youll have to wear this my friend
Youll have to throw rocks once again
Hurry up get yourselves together
Because its for now and for the future
Hold your breath, control your fear
Remember why youre here
Everything else will go wrong
Unless this has settled down

Just keep it in mind

Its a good day to express yourself
Its a nice day to raise hell as well

Thats the way Im feeling too
Youre waiting here and you dont have a clue
Beyond the fence theyre watching you
And there is not much you can do
We are saying no more lies
Tear gas wont make us cry
Stand for your right and yell my son
And dont forget what they have done

No, Im no more a good citizen and never was

Its a good day to express yourself
Its a nice day to raise hell as well
I got hit by a rock on the head
And now Im seeing red
