Now, is this real?
Much too real
hell, planet hell

much too real
chemical weapons
burning citizens

body count rising

chaos
digital combat
ruin and debris
decomposed bodies
rancid, planet

much too real
hell, planet hell
deadly enemy
murderous machines
countless homicide
conflict
country vs. country
social anarchy
deconstruct order
anguish, planet

hell, dwell, die, why?

Planet in despair
paralysed with fear
frequent suicide
downfall
technical abuse

nature in decay

nuclear demise
outrage
Hell, dwell, die, why?
Hell, dwell, die...
