In amongst my head I saw
Where no-one had to worry 'bout
The time we had to waste
I been around the world enough to
To make me cry
Fleeting glimpse detains me in my
My hour of pride

I look around my head and I get
All confused today
The people that I'm meeting don't
Seem to know their way
You stop you look around and then you
You realize
For every single fuck up
There's an alibi

Stop the world right now
I want to leave
Stop the world right now
I want to leave
Stop the world right now
I want to leave

Artist: Out Of My Hair

Title: Stop the world

I'm seeing many pictures but I
Don't quite know the score
With very single greeting there is Always room for more
You stop you turn around and you
You remonstrate
But every single word you say gets
Lost in space

Stop the world right now
I want to leave
Stop the world right now
I want to leave

Stop the world right now
I want to leave

Stop the world right now
I want to leave

Stop the world right now
I want to leave

Stop the world right now

Stop the world right now

Stop the world right now

I want to leave

Stop the world right now

Stop the world right now

Stop the world right now

I want to leave
