"Cape Of Our Hero"

All of the perfection nothing will and can be made the old skin has to shed before the new one sees the day opportunities to find the deeper powers in ourselves come when life is breathing and seem more than what it is

Go blindly completely!

You tell me how I can fly away and believe that all the angels are coming you bring me down then I will fly again
and believe that all the angels are coming!

The kingdom of the fathers and the heroes where are you
I'm talking to you every night more than I should do what awaits and when will be the day when I can wear the cape

I'm lying on the ground as always staring into the air

Go blindly completely!

You tell me how I can fly away
and believe that all the angels are coming
you bring me down then I will fly again and believe that all the angels are coming! Zah, ah, ah!

(Breakdown)

The stars are long gone but we can still see their glow long after they've skidded off into oblivion!

You tell me how... I can fly away... and believe that all of the angels are coming
you bring me down, then I will fly again and believe that all of the angels coming!

You tell me how, I can fly away

and believe that all of the angels are coming
you bring me down, then I will fly again
and believe that all of the angels are coming!
