Wake up baby and taste the dirt we're six feet under and still in love
the day has come,
we belong with the living dead of the night

The day has come,
we belong with the living dead of the night ah

Hear the outlaw ghoul and his cane crashing our casket to find his way
the day has come
we belong with the living dead of the night

Hold on to me baby
his bony hands will do you no harm
It said in the cards we lost our soul to the nameless one

Wake up my darling's your time is up follow my riders into the dark
the day has come
we belong with the living dead of the night

Hold on to me baby
It said in the cards we lost our soul to the nameless one

Long time ago
you called upon the tombstones Gambling with your soul for nothing and now you're walking through the valley of the death But see how beautiful you are Skinny blue and grey in love You'll walk among the outlaw bandits until you meet the nameless one

Hold on to me baby
his bony hands will do you no harm
It said in the cards we lost our soul to the nameless one

Hold on to me baby

The day has finally come
