Outwit - Goodbye My Friend

Album: Drop Your Mask

Year: 2006

Did you, know im out there waiting for the clock to go back in time ?
When you and i were still together

Help me, i hope the next world will have open gates, that i could walk through them, insted of life you've been carried into death

Carried with some thoughts of you Mesmeriszed by this sad truth.
The wind will whisper your name
Through my broken shell

The Night will cry, my love to you
This story still remains
And i still cant breakthrough
But now your gone, goodbye my friend,
So now im falling away
Im falling away

Now,The secrets we have shared
The secrets we have shared
Can't let them burn (Let them burn!)
Let them burn!!
So many things 've been left for me unsolved
The lights went off, The moment you slipped away
Slipped away,
And i'm still living in a chain of disasters

The Night will cry, my love to you
This story still remains
And i still cant breakthrough
But now your gone, goodbye my friend,
So now im falling away
Im falling away

Its been awhile

Since you have left me as a living dead
And im still crawling.

Oh no, its all ruined
How come its all ruined?
