Hello cruel world

Did I keep you long?
You've waited so patiently To torture my soul
To ruin my life
My anguish, your ecstasy
And I've compalined

But it's to no avail
I've complained
Day after day
Good morning cruel world
did you sleep well last night

were you dreaming of all the ways to torture my soul
to ruin my life?
this anguish day after day
Good bye cruel world

It's time to go
Who's leaving though?
Oh, not me!
I'm tugging the sails
I'm turning the tide
Your angush, my ecstasy
And you'll complain
But it's to no avail

You'll complain

Again and again and Again and again

You're stuck with me
Stuck with me, stuck with me
Out of luck with me
