Beneath the snow you can find a cut off power
The silver moon won't make a bridge for the sea today Moss is covering, moss is all around Because of its weight the branches are bending, the top is about to break
On the edge! Beautiful is the world
On the edge! Courage is power On the edge! Amazing atmosphere On the edge there is a moment time (b4 there clock ticks for the last time)
Hard to wander, hard to bear Can't see the horizon while being blind
So broils the heat until there is just black left Everyone shoots straight to me without warning Hope is just the first step on the path of disappointments
