Verse 1 (Rame Royal)

Whoever said love was stronger than pride

lied

whoever said they never did wrong to Highside

be quiet

feel me if you done been in some riots

an came up on somethin for nothin fuck havin to buy it

when there's so many ways to make it happen it juss so happen I chose rappin to keep me from gettin crackin

wit unorthadox plots

I gots to clock out every beat I got is a knocker never show stoppin for parties
we controlin fates
self-employed Royal
from Golden State
gettin high as real estate rates
an black hawk
an can't wait to peel a cap off intoxicants
an compliment
we out to get her out abstanince eatin phat at restaurants
an juss
tryin to get up to that upper enchalaunt status
you think that I'm sellin somethin in tree wrap but I juss eat, drink, an think rap on the nack.

(Chorus) x2

Verse 2 (Rame Royal)

Rame open for business, 25-8 a nigga tryin to motivate in this game wit high stakes accumulate figures

to calculate
generate income

an then some

to win funds to appreciate

energize my enterprize

recognize

minimize

time to hibernate

dedicate mine

to a real grind and rhyme excelebrate while I'm climbin

Why wait?

An let snakes dictate my fate

in control pimp my whole program check mics like hoes in Cadillac brohams

matter fact

maximum sacks

act like they got cateracts now no man see's Royal for less than 4 grams

what I've seen is savage

now my eyes love to visualize above average luxurious

lavish shit

these big leaugers an myself

said fuck fatigues

to get established with wealth an live extravagant.

Chorus x2 (Richie Rich, Rhythm & Green)

Rhythm & Green on deck

to check the mizzy

(Phone Check mayne!)

It's off the hook

mornin

noon

an nizzy

Stay busy

(Stay busy)

Make it happen Rame an Jul

(We gonna do our thang, like the thang to do)
