It stays the same
This need to abstain
You're ashamed
You're ashamed
You're needing your space
Self-important phrase
I could not go anyways
Resentment runs deep
Drunk, falling asleep
No memory
No memory
Take a mindless route
Drunk, shut it right out
No memory
No memory
And we remain
And we remain
And we remain
I don't know how to talk
Articulate a thought
I'm nervously what you're not
We lie side by side
Identical, run dry
We have this until we die
And we remain
And we remain
And we remain
