Look at me i'm broken
i fell and broke again i need a hand to lift me and a drink to ease my pain

i need someone to help me i m shouting out in vain the first who can hug me the first can take my name

just take my heart for free but an empty heart's gonna fall apart and never let you see

Ref.:

again, again i feel the pain
i throw some back at you because you lied and so did i tell me who is who?

who can you trust?
and, who will just fail?
and, who will surrender?
and, who lies again?

you can take me in your bag you can crease me in your pocket i'm crumpled like a rag

Ref.:

well, tell me who is who?
