Cruisin on the street feeling my feet getting mellow like this beat with my head down can't see nothing
i'm not intrested
i don't worry about it

with my head down watching the ground bringing me closer to my goal don't want to be the part of your soul never ever no more

just dream just dream dreaming just dream till i call u back
just dream till i call u just dream just dream just dream
just dream till i call u still cruisin on the street feelin' my feet gettin' mellow like this thing what we've been through just me and u i know u do i miss u too

just dream till i call u
