Lyrics: Jessica Vautor

From now on,
I'll live a good life,
I will stay at home
at night and watch the stars.
In the dark the stars are so bright:
everlasting diamonds of my Life

I will fly a plane so high that It will take all of my worries away.

If sometime,
in one of my lives,
I have hurt you bad
and made you heart cry out I will spend the rest of my days blowing smiles from miles away.

In the sky
I see a million faces watching us all as we play.
