my blood is really boiling and I've got fire in my eyes there is no compromising once we get outside the buttons have been pushed and all systems are go he's going to pay the price with all four of his eyes

[chorus]

I just hit a guy with glasses!!

would you hit a guy with glasses?!!

will someone please explain to me who made that wacky rule if you hit a guy with glasses you won't look very cool the science club is pissed and they are after me they want compensation for the optometry
