No I can't seem to cope
With all that's in front of me
I wish I had some time
To catch up with myself

Living check to check
I got nothing to call my own
I'm overdrawn and
My credit is all spent

I've got walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication

Everyday the same routine
In my programmed life
I don't know what
My social status is

Early to bed and early to rise
I never see the sun
A creature of habit
Is what I've become

Walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication
I've got walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication

My girlfriend left me yesterday
She says that she's gay
She took all her things
And my private joy

My brother owes me fifty bucks
And now, I'm unemployed
The rituals of life
Lead to my condition

Walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication
I've got walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication

The doctor says, "Please, take it easy
Because this isn't healthy"
But I need things
A doctor can't prescribe

I'm running the race on a
Treadmill going nowhere fast
I need an outlet in my
So called life, my life

Walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication
I've got walkin' frustration
And I've got no medication

Walkin' frustration
Walkin' frustration
Walkin' frustration
Walkin' frustration
