We're gonna try, you live or die Your gonna find out why tonight Your gonna win, your luck is in The prize is now in site

And I'll keep you by my side Journey on through our adventure Eye's open wide, we'll see the light I know, we'll be alright

You give me the power Like the sunrise in the morning Got the power Can you see it in my eyes

Give me the power Even when the night is falling Every hour I will fight for what is right Give me the power

You give me the power
Like the sunrise in the morning
Got the power
Can you see it in my eyes

Give me the power Even when the night is falling Every hour I will fight for what is right

Awaking from the ordinary life
I feel the edge upon my spirit's knife
I have the power at last
I won't let the die be cast
I'll fight as long as I'm alive

You give me the power
You give me the power
Like the sunrise in the morning
Got the power
Can you see it in my eyes

Give me the power

Even when the night is falling Every hour I will fight for what is right Give me the power

You give me the power Like the sunrise in the morning Got the power Can you see it in my eyes

Give me the power Even when the night is falling Every hour I will fight for what is right Give me the power
