Come inside you are hungry for sleep
You are the warmest part of the winter
When I was young I made a plan
That I would never break myself
Lift the shade and let some light in the room
We don't see the sun anymore
I've been told I gave my soul to live the days for someone else

Oh you awake to find you have died
Oh you awake to find it's gone out of you
Oh you awake to find you are all covered in dark
With nothing ready to start or to see through
I had a name
I let it leave me
I had a plan to settle you in
I am a man
I am uneasy
Come out come out and let me go in

Done and done you caught the scent of a man
You can never get back to nature
And you walked down some dirty dreamer
Keep you up all through the dawn
Turn your head
Remember this is free love
You are free to bury the body
That ties you down and sets you free and touches you from right to wrong

You awake to find you have died
Oh you awake to find it's gone out of you
Oh you awake to find you are all covered in dark
With nothing ready to start or to see through
I had a name
I let it leave me
I had a plan to settle you in
I am a man
I am uneasy
Come out come out and let me go in

Tell me you love me but don't say it with words
I wanna feel your body around me
And twenty years of push and pull have left you searchin' for a name
But maybe I have come here to die
To watch the life go out of my body
Take apart the ugly days and you will never see the sun

I had a name
I let it leave me
I had a plan to settle you in
I am man
I am uneasy
Come out come out and let me come in
