"When I'm Alone"

Everytime I catch your eye in the street light
Late at night when I walk you home
I hate to think that you're not mine
So then I try to make you feel I don't want you
I don't want to go down the road
We always get in a big fight, it happens all the time
So when I say that I'm just your friend and I'm willing to try
No I won't carry on pretending it's all a lie

Cause I smile when you're there
But I cry when I'm all alone
But it's far too hard to say to you don't go

Everytime I hear your voice on the phone line
Late at night when you're feeling low
And you're telling me to come over
It happens all the time

Cause I smile when you're there
But I cry when I'm all alone
But it's far too hard to say to you don't go
